Information Round-Up for K-12 Teachers

A bulletin for K-12 teachers to learn about opportunities and resources for professional development, curriculum resources, and events at MSU related to Latin America and the Caribbean and the world. Contact CLACS with questions or to join the mailing list.

Latin America in the Schools

When is Mexican Independence Day?

CLACS travelled to Ginger Metevier’s Spanish class at Grand Ledge High School to talk about Mexican Independence Day.

Professional Development

US Department of Education Fulbright-Hays Seminars Abroad
Deadline December 9, 2015
Program to Peru for elementary and middle school educators

LATTICE

Linking All Types of Teachers to International Cross-Cultural Education is a learning community and international network that cultivates and supports a global perspective in K-12 classrooms through personal and professional development.

Proposal Writing

This resource provides a tutorial on the proposal-writing process.

Curriculum Resources

Tulane Stone Center
Resources to incorporate Latin American and the Caribbean into curriculum.

Opportunities at MSU

MSU Global Festival
November 22, 2016
Come see the world in a day! Educational tables and cultural performances from around the globe.

International Speakers Program

CeLTA Language School Spring 2016

World Language Day 2016

Latin American and Caribbean News at MSU